BEAUTIFUL SCENES AROUND SERBIA

Bridge crossing the Danube at Novi Sod. This bridge was destroyed by American bombers in early 1990's. Many people were crossing the bridge at the time. The war bombings resulted from demands of the US and NATO for Yugoslavia to give the immigrating moslem of Albania all of the state of Kosovo which belong to Yugoslavia. — at Novi Sod, Serbia overlooking the Danube River.

Anglican Orthodox Church of Macedonia

Just arrived in Skopje, Macedonia
- home of Philip of Macedon and his son, Alexander the Great. It is also, like Serbia, a beautiful country filled with wonderful and hospitable people. We will have evening prayer tonight, and Holy Communion, baptisms, and confirmations (12 adults) tomorrow. Pray that the Lord will bind thousands in this land to the Church for which the Apostle Paul labored here. God has been so very gracious to put our feet upon this good land whose history is great and whose future (in Christ) will be even greater.
Bishop Jerry L. Ogles

Before our Father's throne
We pour united prayers;
Our fears, our hopes,
Our aims are one;
Our comforts and our cares.

We share our mutual woes,
Our mutual burden bear;
And often for each other flows
The sympathizing tear.

When we at death must part,
Not like the world's, our pain;
But one in Christ,
and one heart,
We part to meet again.

From sorrow, toil and pain
And sin, we shall be free;
And perfect love and Friendship reign

Let Brotherly Love Continue. Heb. 13:1

Then spake Jesus again unto them, saying, I am the light of the world: he that followeth me shall not walk in darkness, but shall have the light of life.
John 8:12
