Eighth Sunday after Trinity

Sunday Report

Today was The Transfiguration of Christ, superseding the Eighth Sunday after Trinity in the Endless Green Season.

On Point

Someone asked, where do the quotes come from? The answer is from the people who uttered them. But, how did you find them? Oh, that. Some from Bishop Jerry, many from Rev Bryan Dabney, a few from other places, some from Rev Geordie Menzies-Grierson, but overall mostly from Bryan. He always has some great ones to share. On to the On Point quotes –

Take heed lest any man deceive you: for many shall come in my name, saying, I am Christ; and shall deceive many.

St. Mark 13:5-6

My mother and my brethren are these which hear the word of God, and do it.

St. Luke 8:21

For the wages of sin is death; but the gift of God is eternal life through Jesus Christ our Lord.

Romans 6:23

This is the covenant that I will make with them after those days, saith the Lord, I will put my laws into their hearts, and in their minds will I write them: and their sins and iniquities will I remember no more.

Hebrews 10:16-17

Vacant places invite him. The Devil loves a vacuum. A very busy person himself, he does his biggest business with those who have no business.

Propers

Each Sunday there are Propers: special prayers and readings from the Bible. There is a Collect for the Day; that is a single thought prayer, most written either before the re-founding of the Church of England in the 1540s or written by Bishop Thomas Cranmer, the first Archbishop of Canterbury after the re-founding.

The Collect for the Day is to be read on Sunday and during Morning and Evening Prayer until the next Sunday. The Epistle is normally a reading from one of the various Epistles, or letters, in the New Testament. The Gospel is a reading from one of the Holy Gospels, Matthew, Mark, Luke and John. The Collect is said by the minister as a prayer, the Epistle can be read by either a designated reader (as we do in our church) or by one of the ministers and the Holy Gospel, which during the service in our church is read by an ordained minister.

The propers are the same each year, except if a Red Letter Feast, that is one with propers in the prayerbook, falls on a Sunday, then those propers are to be read instead, except in a White Season, where it is put off. Red Letter Feasts, so called because in the Altar Prayerbooks the titles are in red, are special days. Most of the Red Letter Feasts are dedicated to early saints instrumental in the development of the church, others to special events. Some days are particularly special and the Collect for that day is to be used for an octave (eight days) or an entire season, like Advent or Lent.

The Propers for today are found on Page 247-249, with the Collect first:

The Transfiguration of Christ.

[August 6.]

The Collect.

O GOD, who on the mount didst reveal to chosen witnesses thine only-begotten Son wonderfully transfigured, in raiment white and glistering; Mercifully grant that we, being delivered from the disquietude of this world, may be permitted to behold the King in his beauty, who with thee, O Father, and thee, O Holy Ghost, liveth and reigneth, one God, world without end. Amen.

And the Collect for the superseded Sunday:

The Eighth Sunday after Trinity.

The Collect.

O GOD, whose never-failing providence ordereth all things both in heaven and earth; We humbly beseech thee to put away from us all hurtful things, and to give us those things which are profitable for us; through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

The Epistle for today comes from Saint Peter's Second General Epistle, the First Chapter, beginning at the Thirteenth Verse:

I THINK it meet, as long as I am in this tabernacle, to stir you up by putting you in remembrance; knowing that shortly I must put off this my tabernacle, even as our Lord Jesus Christ hath shewed me. Moreover I will endeavour that ye may be able after my decease to have these things always in remembrance. For we have not followed cunningly devised fables, when we made known unto you the power and coming of our Lord Jesus Christ, but were eyewitnesses of his majesty. For he received from God the Father honour and glory, when there came such a voice to him from the excellent glory,

This is my beloved Son, in whom I am well pleased. And this voice which came from heaven we heard, when we were with him in the holy mount.

This morning's Gospel comes from the Gospel according to Saint Luke, the Ninth Chapter beginning at the Twenty-Eighth Verse:

AND it came to pass about an eight days after these sayings, he took Peter and John and James, and went up into a mountain to pray. And as he prayed, the fashion of his countenance was altered, and his raiment was white and glistening. And, behold, there talked with him two men, which were Moses and Elias: who appeared in glory, and spake of his decease which he should accomplish at Jerusalem. But Peter and they that were with him were heavy with sleep: and when they were awake, they saw his glory, and the two men that stood with him. And it came to pass, as they departed from him, Peter said unto Jesus, Master, it is good for us to be here: and let us make three tabernacles; one for thee, and one for Moses, and one for Elias: not knowing what he said. While he thus spake, there came a cloud, and overshadowed them: and they feared as they entered into the cloud. And there came a voice out of the cloud, saying, This is my beloved Son: hear him. And when the voice was past, Jesus was found alone. And they kept it close, and told no man in those days any of those things which they had seen.

The Collect.

O GOD, whose never-failing providence ordereth all things both in heaven and earth; We humbly beseech thee to put away from us all hurtful things, and to give us those things which are profitable for us; through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

AND it came to pass about an eight days after these sayings, he took Peter and John and James, and went up into a mountain to pray. 29 And as he prayed, the fashion of his countenance was altered, and his raiment was white and glistening. 30 And, behold, there talked with him two men, which were Moses and Elias: 31 Who appeared in glory, and spake of his decease which he should accomplish at Jerusalem. 32 But Peter and they that were with him were heavy with sleep: and when they were awake, they saw his glory, and the two men that stood with him. 33 And it came to pass, as they departed from him, Peter said unto Jesus, Master, it is good for us to be here: and let us make three tabernacles; one for thee, and one for Moses, and one for Elias: not knowing what he said. 34 While he thus spake, there came a cloud, and overshadowed them: and they feared as they entered into the cloud. 35 And there came a voice out of the cloud, saying, This is my beloved Son: hear him. 36 And when the voice was past, Jesus was found alone. And they kept it close, and told no man in those days any of those things which they had seen. (Luke 9:28-36)

What is the Significance of the Transfiguration of Jesus Christ?

I will begin by telling a story about a number of larva hatched in the mud and stale water of a swamp. They lived the first days of their lives by crawling about in the filth of the swamp and in trying to survive the searching eyes of fish, frogs, and turtles. It was a most miserable life, but it was all that these larvae had ever known, so that had little with which to make comparison. They tried to stay close together with brother and sister as they matured into more mature larvae. (there are three stages in the life cycle of the Dragon fly - egg, larva, and adult.) Once the larva has grown, some of the stronger ones will begin to climb up a reed and disappear from the waters of the swamp forever. The others who remain and witness their family member depart are at a loss to explain the absence of their brother or sister. They assume that they have died and will never be seen again; however, once above the water line, the departed member begins to shed his old attire and take on a totally different appearance. He spreads his wings and loses all of his prior nature as a water-born creature. He is now a Dragon Fly with the ability and freedom to fly any place he chooses at speed well surpassing 35 miles per hour. He has been transfigured, or metamorphosed into a new creature.

This is very much like the passing of a child of God. He is changed in an instant and receives a glorified body much distinguishable from that which he formerly owned. Those left behind may not understand, but the departed saint has freedoms unheard of on earth. These are the Dragon Fly Saints.

(Mark 9:2-9)

The account of the transfiguration of Jesus Christ as recorded here in Mark (parallel passages are found in Matthew 17:1-3 and above in Luke 9:28-36) is a demonstration to three witnesses that Jesus Christ was who He claimed to be. In all three accounts of the transfiguration of Jesus Christ, we are given the names of the three disciples who accompanied Jesus and who stood as human witnesses to the glory that was Christ's. There were also three heavenly witnesses -- Moses, Elijah, and the voice of God from heaven. Therefore, the Old Testament law of three witnesses required to attest to any fact (Deuteronomy 19:15) was satisfied both in earth and in heaven.

We have, in the account given in the Gospels of Matthew, Mark and Luke, a glorious and faith confirming event that had a profound effect on the three Apostles who were privileged to witness it. These three were given a view to which none other than the host of heaven was privy - the glorious transfiguration of Christ into His Heavenly state of Holiness, Light, and Eternal Being in the Kingdom of God. The words of Jesus in (Mark 1) are particularly noteworthy to this event. - But I tell you of a truth, there be some standing here, which shall not taste of death, till they see the kingdom of God. Christ is providing them with the news that they will soon glimpse His Heavenly Glory and coming Kingdom of God. This was a preview of what they would see and know following the resurrection when all was finished!

When we wish to come near to God, we should go where we are assured of solitude. Mountains take us to a higher plane, and also provide assured privacy. As we come nearer to the peak of the mountain, there is only a small patch of terrain for our position. Additionally, when we are on the mountain, we are nearer to God because the world is far from us as we look down on the small features of the familiar world. And we must come to Christ all alone - apart from any other person who we may think to help us.

The word "transfigured" is a very interesting word. The Greek word is "metamorpho" and it means to transform, literally or figuratively to metamorphose, or to change. The word is a verb that means to change into another form. It also means to change the outside to match the inside. The prefix "meta" means to change and the "morpho" means form. In the case of the transfiguration of Jesus Christ it means to match the outside with the reality of the inside. To change the outward so that it matches the inward reality. Jesus' divine nature was "veiled" (Hebrews 10:20) in human form and the transfiguration was a glimpse of that glory. Therefore, the transfiguration of Jesus Christ displayed the Shekinah glory of God incarnate in the Son. The voice of God attesting to the truth of Jesus' Sonship was the second time God's voice was heard. The first time was at Jesus' baptism into His public ministry by John the Baptist. (Matthew 3:7; Mark 1:11; Luke 3:22)

As Christ prayed, the Kingdom of God began to materialize before the eyes of the onlookers. Not only did the bodily features of Christ begin to change, but even His raiment became immaculately white and even resplendent in their bright beauty. Moses and Elias (Hellenic for Elijah), who appeared in glory but still as men, appeared by the side of Christ and discussed His coming death. One of these men had known physical death for God had shown him all the Promised Land from the heights of Mount Pisgah, and he died there. God Himself buried Moses. The other, Elijah, had not known physical death for he was translated in a Chariot of Fire. When the Kingdom comes in the fullness of time, some will still be living who know the Lord. They will likewise never see physical death, but others, like Moses (no less cherished by God) sleeps in the dust until that great moment comes.

The Apostles were amazed at the sight of the glorified Christ in the presence of Moses and Elijah. It is quite remarkable that, even though they were not told the identity of the two Prophets present, they nonetheless recognized them. When we are in Christ in the coming glory, many mysteries will likewise be known to us without the asking.

Poor Peter, being a speaker always before a thinker, remarked that they should build three tabernacles on the spot: one for Christ, and one each for the two prophets. In so doing, Peter was unwittingly placing the prophets on the same par with Christ. We should never consider any man, regardless his piety or devotion, on a level with God. We believe all things, not because some inspired man has spoken them, but because God has spoken in His Word.

While he thus spake, there came a cloud, and overshadowed them: and they feared as they entered into the cloud. And there came a voice out of the cloud, saying, "This is my beloved Son: hear him." I do believe the message could be any clearer or simple: "Let God be true and every man a liar" (Romans 3:4) Regardless what gifted minister may say, it is our duty to confirm all things heard or spoken with Holy Scripture. If God has not spoken it, a million words of a great man will not alter the truth one iota.

After the voice had spoken, the cloud lifted. That should always be true in the Christian's understanding - once God has addressed a matter, it is finally settled for good - no questions, not rationalization, no equivocation! And as the cloud lifted, in order to emphasize the point, Christ was found alone. It is to Christ alone that we owe our redemption and to Him alone that we must seek succor. "This is my Beloved Son: hear Him!" This was God's command to the Apostles, and it is God's command to us on this Day of Transfiguration, and every day!

The Son of God came to earth in the form of a man to be the true servant of God and to gift mankind with the greatest gift ever given, eternal life. The transfiguration of Jesus Christ was a visible sign in the presence of reliable witnesses of the reality of the power of God and the glory, which is Christ Jesus. (2nd Peter 1:13-19)

Are you ready to climb the reed of salvation and be changed forever?

*Sermon - Reverend Jack Arnold - Time and Action
Church of the Faithful Centurion - Descanso, California*

Today's sermon brought the Collect, Epistle and Gospel together and is partly contained in the forewords above.

This Transfiguration is in many ways a strange event, certainly the like of which the world had never seen before and would not see again. Certainly an exception to Ecclesiastes 1:9's The thing that hath been, it is that which shall be; and that which is done is that which shall be done: and there is no new thing under the sun. For this truly was something new with the Son!

Consider the words from the Collect, wherein we ask God who ... grant that we, being delivered from the disquietude of this world, may be permitted to behold the King in his beauty ...

The Collect does not take us where I, at least, would think it would. We are asking to have our souls be able to withdraw from the noise, clamor and evil of the world which Bishop Cranmer summarizes as the disquietude of this world. To withdraw means to separate, more on that later. But to where? To where we might let our souls behold the King in his beauty. To behold the King in his beauty is to know the Peace of God. That Peace which replaces the disquietude with quietude. To be at peace and rest, something we long for and can only achieve with God's help via the Holy Ghost.

That leads us into Peter's words as he nears the end of his time here on earth. He is at peace with what counts and separated in many respects from the disquietude of the world, set aside, or in another word, holy. He tells those who have depended on him for guidance he will soon be leaving them for home; they must carry on with the initial guidance he and his companions have given them. He reminds them they have been given the truth and the light of our Lord Jesus Christ, not a bunch of what he calls cunningly devised fables which were designed to keep them subject to the ways of this world. He reminds them, and us, this Lord Jesus Christ whom we follow was called My Beloved Son out loud by God Himself at His baptism and again on the Mount at the Transfiguration when we were specifically commanded to listen to him and by inference follow him. For what good is listening only?

This, of course, leads to Luke's account of the Transfiguration. Luke the Physician is often Luke the Historian and this is one of those cases. Jesus went up to a mountain; interesting he did not go to the temple, is it not? He took Peter and John and James, those to whom he was closest, and went up to pray. He knew where he was going, He always did. While He prayed, His appearance and clothing changed. This is the outward transfiguration. You can be sure when He left for the mountain, his clothing was not white and glistening, for in those days nothing was. There he met with Moses and Elias, not dead but alive. They talked of the upcoming crucifixion, but once again Peter's presence was slipping away as he fell asleep, much like he would at Gethsemane. When Peter awoke, he suggested making three tabernacles or monuments to Jesus, Moses and Elias. That must have amused Jesus to no end. Then came the Cloud of God and the VOICE! This is my beloved Son: hear him. Then, there was just Jesus and his band.

So, what to make of this?

And when the voice was past, Jesus was found alone. And they kept it close, and told no man in those days any of those things which they had seen.

Action counts. For by their actions ye shall know them.

Heaven is at the end of an uphill trail. The easy downhill trail does not lead to the summit.

The time is now, not tomorrow. The time has come, indeed. How will you ACT?

It is by our actions we are known.

The Transfiguration of Christ.
[August 6.]
The Collect.

O GOD, who on the mount didst reveal to chosen witnesses thine only-begotten Son wonderfully transfigured, in raiment white and glistening; Mercifully grant that we, being delivered from the disquietude of this world, may be permitted to behold the King in his beauty, who with thee, O Father, and thee, O Holy Ghost, liveth and reigneth, one God, world without end. Amen.

The Epistle for today comes from Saint Peter's Second General Epistle, the First Chapter, beginning at the Thirteenth Verse:

I THINK it meet, as long as I am in this tabernacle, to stir you up by putting you in remembrance; knowing that shortly I must put off this my tabernacle, even as our Lord Jesus Christ hath shewed me. Moreover I will endeavour that ye may be able after my decease to have these things always in remembrance. For we have not followed cunningly devised fables, when we made known unto you the power and coming of our Lord Jesus Christ, but were eyewitnesses of his majesty. For he received from God the Father honour and glory, when there came such a voice to him from the excellent glory, This is my beloved Son, in whom I am well pleased. And this voice which came from heaven we heard, when we were with him in the holy mount.

This morning's Gospel comes from the Gospel according to Saint Luke, the Ninth Chapter beginning at the Twenty-Eighth Verse:

AND it came to pass about an eight days after these sayings, he took Peter and John and James, and went up into a mountain to pray. And as he prayed, the fashion of his countenance was altered, and his raiment was white and glistening. And, behold, there talked with him two men, which were Moses and Elias: who appeared in glory, and spake of his decease which he should accomplish at Jerusalem. But Peter and they that were with him were heavy with sleep: and when they were awake, they saw his glory, and the two men that stood with him. And it came to pass, as they departed from him, Peter said unto Jesus, Master, it is good for us to be here: and let us make three tabernacles; one for thee, and one for Moses, and one for Elias: not knowing what he said. While he thus spake, there came a cloud, and overshadowed them: and they feared as they entered into the cloud. And there came a voice out of the cloud, saying, This is my beloved Son: hear him. And when the voice was past, Jesus was found alone. And they kept it close, and told no man in those days any of those things which they had seen.

Compare the two accounts of Jesus transfiguration in today's readings. Notice first in the epistle where Peter, an eye witness to the event, gives testimony to the event as part of his earthly farewell. Why? He is about to be executed along with a number of other saints, including Paul, so Peter understands the significance of the time at hand. He knew he was going to die fairly soon. We don't have that knowledge unless we are in a similar situation as Peter and Paul. I would remind my listeners that there are Christians at the present who are facing their last. There is a huge persecution against Christians going on world-wide, especially in Muslim controlled areas and Hindu India. Everyday a number of fellow believers give up their lives because they refuse to renounce Christ as their Savior. Sober thoughts, my friends.

So as we read Peter's testimony, his last as far as we can tell, we see his willingness to die for his belief in the Lord Jesus Christ. He testifies that he was an eyewitness to his majesty, he heard the voice of God speaking out from heaven, "...this is my beloved So, in whom I am well pleased." Peter re-emphasizes the fact that the disciples and early church are not following "cunningly devised fables....but when we made known unto you the power and the coming of our Lord Jesus Christ [why?] (we) were eyewitnesses of his majesty." In Peter's "last will and testament" he makes reference to the event in the past, he points to Christ who showed him [by the example of the death, burial, and resurrection of Christ] what would happen when it was Peter's time to die. But he [Peter] want the reader of this epistle to not lose the lesson, he asks the reader to "...that ye may be able after my decease to have these things always in remembrance." In other words, follow my example as I have followed Christ's.

Then let us look at the second account of the transfiguration. In the Gospel of Luke, we read of the account, not by an eyewitness, but by someone who had lengthy conversations with those who were there at the event. We can surmise that Luke most likely spoke to John and possible James in the years after Christ left the disciples on the Mount of Olives that wonderful day. (Ascension Day). Once again, Peter takes center stage. He thinks that there is a need to erect three booths to commemorate the Transfiguration. While he is yet speaking, a voice calls out from heaven, "This is my beloved Son: hear him." Why did Peter feel the need to do this building? He understood most of the significance of what had just taken place. Moses, the emancipator of the Hebrews from slavery, Elijah, the great prophet who, stood against evil, but was also prophesied to come back before the Messiah, and of course Jesus, all figures would merit a commemorative booth or tabernacle. The disciples still didn't completely understand the significance of what had just happened. God was certifying his Only begotten Son, Jesus Christ as the Messiah. The Redeemer of Israel and all others who would believe in Him.

The three witnesses were told by Jesus to not speak about what they had seen that day on the mount, later they could testify, after Jesus death, burial, and resurrection. Then the event could be revealed and discussed.

Beloved, we do not live in that time. Everything that God has wanted us to know is revealed in his Word. Word as in Logos, Christ Jesus {John 1:1ff} and in His revealed Word, the Bible. So we don't have any excuse to not share this wonderful message, this saving knowledge, this life saving information. We must share it. We must let the dying world know that there is hope. There is THE WAY, the One and Only WAY, Jesus Christ, the Savior of the World.

Let us go forth and share the Good News this week and in the weeks to come.

Let us pray:

O GOOD Shepherd of the sheep, look mercifully upon those who have none to watch over them in Thy Name. Prepare them to receive Thy truth and send them pastors after Thine own heart. Replenish with Thine abundant grace those whom Thou dost send, and waken the pity of Thy people for all these strangers to Thy covenant, so that, by their cheerful contribution and the cooperation of Thy Holy Spirit, multitudes may be added to the Church and become partakers of the salvation which Thou hast promised, O Lord and lover of souls. Amen.

O LORD Jesus Christ, who dost give power to such as will receive Thee, that they may become the sons of God; Draw unto Thyself all those who are desirous to come to Thy light; make the way plain for them, that they may no longer be entangled by any worldly cares, so as to be kept out of the way of salvation. Enable them to realize the privileges of Thy Holy Church, and the blessedness of our adoption into the fellowship of Thy Holy Spirit. Deliver them from all false and unworthy conceptions of Thy service; and grant that they may give themselves to bring others with them to serve Thee in spirit and in truth, who livest and reignest with the Father and the Holy Ghost, one God, now and ever. Amen.

O LORD, support us all the day long of this troublous life, until the shadows lengthen and the evening comes, and the busy world is hushed, and the fever of life is over, and our work is done. Then in Thy mercy grant us a safe lodging, and a holy rest, and peace at the last; through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

Rev Bryan Dabney of Saint John's Sunday Sermon

We are fortunate to have Bryan's Sunday Sermon. If you want people to come to The Truth, you have to speak the truth, espouse the truth and live the truth. This is really a good piece and I commend it to your careful reading.

The Transfiguration of Christ superseding the Eighth Sunday after Trinity

Romans 8:12-17

THEREFORE, brethren, we are debtors, not to the flesh, to live after the flesh. ¹³ For if ye live after the flesh, ye shall die: but if ye through the Spirit do mortify the deeds of the body, ye shall live. ¹⁴ For as many as are led by the Spirit of God, they are the sons of God. ¹⁵ For ye have not received the spirit of bondage again to fear; but ye have received the Spirit of adoption, whereby we cry, Abba, Father. ¹⁶ The Spirit itself beareth witness with our spirit, that we are the children of God: ¹⁷ And if children, then heirs; heirs of God, and joint-heirs with Christ; if so be that we suffer with him, that we may be also glorified together.

Paul reminded the Romans, and us, ye have not received the spirit of bondage again to fear; but ye have received the Spirit of adoption, whereby we cry, Abba, Father. The Spirit himself beareth witness with our spirit, that we are the children of God (vv. 15-16). And our Lord admonished the disciples of the importance of being accepted as a child of God when he said, Verily I say unto you, Except ye be converted, and become as little children, ye shall not enter into the kingdom of heaven. Whosoever therefore shall humble himself as this little child, the same is greatest in the kingdom of heaven. And whoso shall receive one such little child in my name receiveth me (St. Matthew 18:3-5). Our Lord used that child as a fit example of those souls who would accept him as their Saviour and Lord. The qualifier in this passage - Except ye be converted, and become as little children - involves the transformation of a person's life from what he or she once did outside of Christ into a new creation in Christ. For from the moment a person believes on Jesus Christ as God's only begotten Son and accepts his sacrifice on their behalf, they become – via adoption - members of the body of Christ as well as of the household of God the Father. And Paul affirmed the same when he wrote concerning believers if they be children then they are, heirs of God, and joint- heirs with Christ; if so be that we suffer with him, that we may be also glorified together (Romans 8:17).

Herein is the problem for many both inside and outside the visible body of the Church. They are not God's children because they have not been born again of the Spirit. For in order to be accepted of God as a son or daughter, the unregenerate must humble themselves before him. And that also includes seeing themselves as God sees them as wicked and degenerate sinners who are in need of repentance. Truth be told, they love their sinful lives more than they would ever love and trust in Jesus Christ. And as they have not a heart for God, they have no means to receive his free gift of grace. This is why the unregenerate despise Christians. Our Lord reminded the disciples of this when he said, If the world hate you, ye know that it hated me before it hated you. If ye were of the world, the world would love his own: but because ye are not of the world, but I have chosen you out of the world, therefore the world hateth you. Remember the word that I said unto you, The servant is not greater than his lord. If they have persecuted me, they will persecute you... But all these things will they do unto you for my name's sake, because they know not him that sent me. If I had not come and spoken unto them, they had not had sin: but now they have no cloke for their sin. He that hateth me hateth my Father also (St. John 15:18-23).

Our world today is dominated by personal evil on a level that is beyond our comprehension. And on account of this domination, it will resist the faithful Christian at every turn, which includes our witness to those who sit in darkness and the shadow of death. Our Lord foresaw these things, that is why he supplied the apostles with a message of comfort when he said, In the world ye shall have tribulation: but be of good cheer; I have overcome the world (St. John 16:33). That passage was not confined to the apostles only. It was and remains an important message to faithful Christians of every age since our Lord's ascension. We who bear the seal of Christ on our foreheads will be hated by the carnal inhabitants of this world. They cannot help themselves to feel otherwise. And why? For as soon as these lost souls discern who we are, the wicked spirits who control and guide them will stir up within them a spirit of fear and hatred of us precisely because of the Master we serve. That is why St. Paul admonished us in his epistle to the Ephesians that, we wrestle not against flesh and blood, but against principalities, against powers, against the rulers of the darkness of this world, against spiritual wickedness in high places (6:12). Therefore, be strong in the Lord and the power of his might. Put on the whole armour of God, that ye may be able to stand against the wiles of the devil. (Ephesians 6:10-11)

The whole point of our Christian witness is to encourage those of the unregenerate to turn unto Jesus Christ and be saved. The words of our Lord to Nicodemus sum up the matter: For God so loved the world, that he gave his only begotten Son, that whosoever believeth in him should not perish, but have everlasting life. For God sent not his Son into the world to condemn the world; but that the world through him might be saved. He that believeth on him is not condemned: but he that believeth not is condemned already, because he hath not believed in the name of the only begotten Son of God (John 3:16-18). Jesus Christ came into the world to save sinners (I St. Timothy 1:15). Jesus Christ is the Lamb of God (St. John 1:36). Jesus Christ came to serve as our mediator and advocate (Hebrews 9:13-15; I St. John 2:1-2).

And so, if we are truly born-again believers in Jesus Christ, we will be obedient to his word and commandment. We will shun the evils of this world and seek the coming of his kingdom. We will live as examples, not in pompousness or pridefulness, but in humility of spirit witnessing and standing for the truth of God's word written. We will see ourselves as children of God, and as his children, we will trust him to keep his word and rely on him every moment of every day knowing that he will fulfil his promises to us which he made in his word written.

Therefore, keep to Christ and study his word. We cannot hope to win the victory on our own. For only by the operations of the Holy Spirit of God will we have the power to finish the fight, and run the race which our Lord has appointed us to do in his service. May it please our heavenly Father to assist you in your daily life and work for his glory and your eternal good.

Let us pray,

O GRACIOUS Father, who sent your Son to become a sacrifice for us on Calvary's cross that we might become thy children and blessed with thy pardon and seal; help our witness to those around us, that they might come to a saving knowledge of our Lord and Saviour Jesus Christ; and in the end be saved from eternal damnation; all of which we ask in his most precious name. Amen.

Have a blessed week, Bryan+

People in our Prayers - <http://faithfulcenturionprayerteam.blogspot.com/>

Why? Prayer is an extremely important activity.

It is not that God knows not our needs, for He surely does. Yet, Jesus commanded us to ask God for those same needs. In addition to the obvious of asking God for help, offering thanksgiving and the like, prayer helps us focus our thoughts on how we might do God's work.

The Prayer Team of the Anglican Orthodox Church was established to help our members and fellow Christians pray for those in need and to give thanks as well for the blessings we have been granted.

Who can be on the list? Do I have to be a member of the Anglican Orthodox Church to be prayed for?

No! The only qualification to be on the list is that you want our prayer team to pray for you. We are Christians and are happy to pray for you, no matter who you are. If you want help from God, you are our kind of people.

What is the commitment from the prayer team?

Each member of the team will pray for the desired outcome at least once per day.

How do I get myself or someone else on the prayer list?

You can email one of the prayer team leaders: Jack - jack@faithfulcenturion.org or Dru - dru@faithfulcenturion.org, or call the office at (619) 659-3608 or fill out a prayer card at your church.

What should I ask for?

Depends on what you want. Some people merely want God to be asked to heal their ills and be mentioned by their first name, others want a specific outcome and / or have more of their personal information known to the team. Ask for what you want. It is your desire and need for prayer the team is attempting to meet. For typical examples, see the list below.

Updating the Team

If you are on our prayer list, or if you have submitted a person that you have asked us to pray for, please update one of the team members or Hap in person, by telephone or email. It helps to be able to pray specifically for these individuals including their specific needs; plus if they get better, it is our happy duty to give thanks!

Please note that on the yellow (maybe green or orange if you get an old one) cards at church, you can ask that those to be prayed for have their names disseminated to the prayer team. Those names will be said in church and appear here. Or, you can ask that their names and purpose be kept confidential, then only Hap will know to pray for them.

Prayer List Notice – If you have someone on the prayer list and their needs have changed, please let us know. We'd like to update our prayers to reflect the need and most important to give thanks!

For Our Country

Our country has lost its way. Over half the people that vote, voted for a government that promises them things it cannot deliver in return for their souls which it can, will and does take. Our foreign policy backs the rise of Islam, we turn our backs on those who would follow God and arm those who murder them. Pray God will raise up a leader from among the people who can turn the country's course 180° and attempt to come back to God. Pray the people will recognize that they are headed down a smooth wide road into the pit, a road that will get smoother and smoother, steeper and steeper until the only possible way is down. Down, into the depths of the pit. Pray people will recognize there is:

- One True and Triune God who is goodness in and of Himself
- All religions are not equal
- All ways of life are not equal;
- The Bible holds the Key to Life;
- All rights come from God, not the State;
- Good;
- Bad;
- Evil;
- Right;
- Wrong;
- Allah is the Devil;
- Abortion is no more than sacrifice of children to Baal.

Pray this recognition will not come too late. Pray we will, each of us, do our duty to God, Country and Family, putting His Honor above all.
