Pentecost commonly known as Whitsunday Sunday Report

Today is Whitsunday, also known as Pentecost.

Pentecost which is commonly called Whitsunday and the time of Whitsuntide

The octave (8 days) following Whitsunday. In the Book of Common Prayer, the Monday and Tuesday after Whitsunday are Red Letter days, so called because days provided with a proper Collect (prayer), Epistle, and Gospel were marked in the calendar in red ink.

"Whitsuntide" (formerly also spelled "Whitsontide") or "Whitsun Week" is derived from Middle English whitsunday, from Old English hwita sunnandæg, "White Sunday", in reference to the white ceremonial robes formerly worn on this day.

Whitsunday marks the Feast of the Descent of the Holy Spirit upon the Apostles on the 50th day after Easter. It ranks, after Easter, as the second festival of the Church. In the West, the Vigil of Pentecost soon became a secondary date for baptisms, with a ceremony resembling the Paschal Vigil Service. (Pentecost is the Greek name for the Jewish Feast of Weeks, which falls on the 50th day after Passover.) As the Holy Spirit descended on the Apostles on this day (Acts 2:1), the name was applied to the Christian feast celebrating this event, popularly called "Whitsunday".

On Point

Someone asked, where do the quotes come from? The answer is from the people who uttered them. But, how did you find them? Oh, that. Some from Bishop Jerry, many from Rev Bryan Dabney, a few from other places, some from Rev Geordie Menzies-Grierson, but overall mostly from Bryan. He always has some great ones to share. On to the On Point quotes –

Propers

Each Sunday there are Propers: special prayers and readings from the Bible. There is a Collect for the Day; that is a single thought prayer, most written either before the re-founding of the Church of England in the 1540s or written by Bishop Thomas Cranmer, the first Archbishop of Canterbury after the re-founding.

The Collect for the Day is to be read on Sunday and during Morning and Evening Prayer until the next Sunday. The Epistle is normally a reading from one of the various Epistles, or letters, in the New Testament. The Gospel is a reading from one of the Holy Gospels, Matthew, Mark, Luke and John. The Collect is said by the minister as a prayer, the Epistle can be read by either a designated reader (as we do in our church) or by one of the ministers and the Holy Gospel, which during the service in our church is read by an ordained minister.

The propers are the same each year, except if a Red Letter Feast, that is one with propers in the prayerbook, falls on a Sunday, then those propers are to be read instead, except in a White Season, where it is put off. Red Letter Feasts, so called because in the Altar Prayerbooks the titles are in red, are special days. Most of the Red Letter Feasts are dedicated to early saints instrumental in the development of the church, others to special events. Some days are particularly special and the Collect for that day is to be used for an octave (eight days) or an entire season, like Advent or Lent.

Pentecost, commonly called Whitsunday.

The Collect.

O GOD, who as at this time didst teach the hearts of thy faithful people, by sending to them the light of thy Holy Spirit; Grant us by the same Spirit to have a right judgment in all things, and evermore to rejoice in his holy comfort; through the merits of Christ Jesus our Saviour, who liveth and reigneth with thee, in the unity of the same Spirit, one God, world without end. Amen.

¶ This Collect is to be said daily throughout Whitsun Week.

The Scripture serving as this morning's Epistle came from the Second Chapter of the Acts of the Apostles beginning at the First Verse, which consisted primarily of a listing of all the countries and regions surrounding Jerusalem, or at least the hardest to pronounce ones, and a description of the actions of the Apostles when the Holy Ghost came upon them. But, you will also notice that the coming of the Holy Ghost demonstrated the universality of The Word, for when they spoke in tongues, The Word spoke to each in their own language. The Word was not some stranger's language, but their very own!

WHEN the day of Pentecost was fully come, they were all with one accord in one place. And suddenly there came a sound from heaven as of a rushing mighty wind, and it filled all the house where they were sitting. And there appeared unto them cloven tongues like as of fire, and it sat upon each of them. And they were all filled with the Holy Ghost, and began to speak with other tongues, as the Spirit gave them utterance. And there were dwelling at Jerusalem Jews, devout men, out of every nation under heaven. Now when this was noised abroad, the multitude came together, and were confounded, because that every man heard them speak in his own language. And they were all amazed and marvelled, saying one to another, Behold, are not all these which speak Galilæans? And how hear we every man in our own tongue, wherein we were born? Parthians, and Medes, and Elamites, and the dwellers in Mesopotamia, and in Judæa, and Cappadocia, in Pontus, and Asia, Phrygia, and Pamphylia, in Egypt, and in the parts of Libya about Cyrene, and strangers of Rome, Jews and proselytes, Cretes and Arabians, we do hear them speak in our tongues the wonderful works of God.

Today's Gospel came from the Fourteenth Chapter of the Gospel according to Saint John beginning at the Fifteenth Verse:

JESUS said unto his disciples, If ye love me, keep my commandments. And I will pray the Father, and he shall give you another Comforter, that he may abide with you for ever; even the Spirit of truth; whom the world cannot receive, because it seeth him not, neither knoweth him: but ye know him; for he dwelleth with you, and shall be in you. I will not leave you comfortless: I will come to you. Yet a little while, and the world seeth me no more; but ye see me: because I live, ye shall live also. At that day ye shall know that I am in my Father, and ye in me, and I in you. He that hath my commandments, and keepeth them, he it is that loveth me: and he that loveth me shall be loved of my Father, and I will love him, and will manifest myself to him. Judas saith unto him, not Iscariot, Lord, how is it that thou wilt manifest thyself unto us, and not unto the world? Jesus answered and said unto him, If a man love me, he will keep my words; and my Father will love him, and we will come unto him, and make our abode with him. He that loveth me not keepeth not my sayings: and the word which ye hear is not mine, but the Father's which sent me. These things have I spoken unto you, being yet present with you. But the Comforter, which is the Holy Ghost, whom the Father will send in my name, he shall teach you all things, and bring all things to your remembrance, whatsoever I have said unto you. Peace I leave with you, my peace I give unto you: not as the world giveth, give I unto you. Let not your heart be troubled, neither let it be afraid. Ye have heard how I said unto you, I go away, and come again unto you. If ye loved me, ye would rejoice, because I said, I go unto the Father: for my Father is greater than I. And now I have told you before it come to pass, that, when it is come to pass, ye might believe. Hereafter I will not talk much with you: for the prince of this world cometh, and hath nothing in me. But that the world may know that I love the Father; and as the Father gave me commandment, even so I do.

Bishop Ogles' Sermon

We are off fortunate to get copies of Bishop Jerry's sermon notes. Today is one of those Sundays. Today's sermon starts off with the collect, and like always, it will give you a lot to consider in your heart.

¶ This Collect is to be said daily throughout Whitsun Week.

WHEN the day of Pentecost was fully come, they were all with one accord in one place. And suddenly there came a sound from heaven as of a rushing mighty wind, and it filled all the house where they were sitting. And there appeared unto them cloven tongues like as of fire, and it sat upon each of them. And they were all filled with the Holy Ghost, and began to speak with other tongues, as the Spirit gave them utterance. And there were dwelling at Jerusalem Jews, devout men, out of every nation under heaven. Now when this was noised abroad, the multitude came together, and were confounded, because that every man heard them speak in his own language. And they were all amazed and marvelled, saying one to another, Behold, are not all these which speak Galilæans? And how hear we every man in our own tongue, wherein we were born? Parthians, and Medes, and Elamites, and the dwellers in Mesopotamia, and in Judæa, and Cappadocia, in Pontus, and Asia, Phrygia, and Pamphylia, in Egypt, and in the parts of Libya about Cyrene, and strangers of Rome, Jews and proselytes, Cretes and Arabians, we do hear them speak in our tongues the wonderful works of God. (Acts 2:1-11)

Pentecost (Whitsuntide) is the 50th day after the first Passover when the Commandments were given at Sinai. The Passover itself preceded the Feast of Firstfruits which also was reflected in the Resurrection of Christ as the Firstfruits of those who slept. It is now observed fifty days past Easter – or the True Passover.

The Holy Days of the Bible are often corrupted by the hands of careless and lukewarm men. In the old Testament Church, the Passover was always referred to as the Passover of the Lord; 24 And ye shall observe this thing for an ordinance to thee and to thy sons for ever. 25 And it shall come to pass, when ye be come to the land which the Lord will give you, according as he hath promised, that ye shall keep this service. 26 And it shall come to pass, when your children shall say unto you, What mean ye by this service? 27 That ye shall say, It is the sacrifice of the Lord's passover, who passed over the houses of the children of Israel in Egypt, when he smote the Egyptians, and delivered our houses. And the people bowed the head and worshipped. (Ex 12:24-27 12:48, Lev 23:5, Num 9:10); but in the New Testament, it is often referred to as the Jews' Passover. Why? Because they had added much of minutia to the observance that greatly expanded the outward form, and reduced the inward and spiritual grace of the observance. And the Jews' passover was at hand, and Jesus went up to Jerusalem (John 2:13, 11:55); And the passover, a feast of the Jews, was nigh. (John 6:4)

The meaning of Christmas has also been subverted by Santa Claus, glitter, and even an attempt to call it by another name. Easter has become a day to observe fertility rites more than the Passover (Resurrection) of Christ with Easter eggs and bunny taking the place of the King of Glory.

Pentecost is the day of the coming of the Holy Ghost. It happens fifty days following the Passover which Christ sealed with His own blood (rather than that of an unblemished lamb, for He was the Lamb of God). We will see that even the meaning of the Coming of the Holy Ghost has also been usurped by greedy men seeking to enrich the church coffers.

This text today is about prayer as much as it is about Pentecost, for the matter is all wrapped up together in the wonderful manner of working of God, the Holy Ghost.

And when the day of Pentecost was fully come, they were all with one accord in one place. This is an example to us of how a church should be – one accord, one place. If the Church body is in one accord with the Word of God, dissension has no room. The common prayers of the Apostles were joined together as one voice, and that voice was also the Voice of God for, if we pray in His Will, the prayer is a repeat of His Word for us. Common prayer is strong in its effect and reception by God.

Prayer is not unlike an echo. It rises to Heaven and, if it be a Godly prayer, is resounds from Heaven with a thunderous echo. Prayer truly is an echo, only the echo is not God's. It is our spirits echoing, in humble prayer, the will of the Lord. He thunders and we echo that thunder in our hearts. Our truest prayers are but the echo of God's promises. And our echoed prayer is answered with echo after echo from God – very much like two mirrors facing so that the resulting image advances into infinity.

We are now about to witness in the text an illustration of the working of that Spirit called Holy – the Holy Ghost! Please note from whence the sound of His Voice originates:

And suddenly there came a sound from heaven as of a rushing mighty wind, and it filled all the house where they were sitting. From Heaven. No will of God originates on earth, but from heaven. That is why our prayers must 'echo' the will of God for us.

A rushing mighty wind: A symbol of the Holy Ghost, almost always working in the silent chambers of the heart, here is so powerfully present in its coming that it resembles a mighty gushing wind of tremendous force. There is no corner of the house that is not filled with it. It comes secretly and without known origin; it shakes the structures of the buildings; it purifies the earth by moving trash from its surface; and it softly refreshes the sir and makes it pure. In this, the Holy Ghost is like the morning dew, no one can observe its coming, but the evidence of its presence overwhelms the company. 8 The wind bloweth where it listeth, and thou hearest the sound thereof, but canst not tell whence it cometh, and whither it goeth: so is every one that is born of the Spirit. (John 3:8)

And there appeared unto them cloven tongues like as of fire, and it sat upon each of them. Notice the Holy Ghost is like a FIRE! He is bright and shining; He warms the heart; He burns whatever gets in His way; and He moves with rapidity. As Matthew Henry notes: The Spirit, like fire, melts the heart, burns up the dross, and kindles pious and devout affections in the soul; in which, as in the fire on the altar, the spiritual sacrifices are offered up.

Pentecost began with fervent prayer in the Wilderness, and so does the same occur here at our day of Pentecost following, by forty-nine days, the events of Holy Week.

And ye shall count unto you from the morrow after the sabbath, from the day that ye brought the sheaf of the wave offering; seven sabbaths shall be complete: ¹⁶ Even unto the morrow after the seventh sabbath shall ye number fifty days; and ye shall offer a new meat offering unto the LORD. (Lev 23:15-16)

This is the seventh week (or 49 days of the morrow) following the Sunday of Resurrection! Once again, fervent prayer is offered and the Holy Ghost answers that call. We note in the events of this moment that the Holy Ghost had the efficacious benefit to change the hearts of men instantaneously to believe on Him whom they had pierced.

Let us examine this effect:

And they were all filled with the Holy Ghost, and began to speak with other tongues, as the Spirit gave them utterance. What do these other tongues mean and how were they manifested to those around?

And there were dwelling at Jerusalem Jews, devout men, out of every nation under heaven. There were present representatives from every known nations at Jerusalem. They all spoke in 'foreign' languages. This must have been a confusing moment? Only in the sense of the modern heresy of so-called unknown tongues.

But not so with the true miracle of tongues Now when this was noised abroad, the multitude came together, and were confounded, because that every man heard them speak in his own language. They were confused, not because they could not understand the words spoken by the Apostles, but because they COULD!

And they were all amazed and marvelled, saying one to another, Behold, are not all these which speak Galilaeans? ⁸ And how hear we every man in our own tongue, wherein we were born? ⁹ Parthians, and Medes, and Elamites, and the dwellers in Mesopotamia, and in Judaea, and Cappadocia, in Pontus, and Asia, Phrygia, and Pamphylia, in Egypt, and in the parts of Libya about Cyrene, and strangers of Rome, Jews and proselytes, ¹¹ Cretes and Arabians, we do hear them speak in our tongues the wonderful works of God. If someone came to my hometown from China without any preparation in English language, and spoke a clear and meaning sermon from the Scriptures, could I not say this would be a true miracle?

I am sorry to tell you this, but all those so-called churches who teach that these tongues were utterances of ecstasy that no one else could understand are teachers of false doctrine. They are heretics. It is not the first example of confused tongues being spoken. Remember the Tower at Babel from which we get the term, babbling?

5 And the Lord came down to see the city and the tower, which the children of men builded. 6 And the Lord said, Behold, the people is one, and they have all one language; and this they begin to do: and now nothing will be restrained from them, which they have imagined to do. 7 Go to, let us go down, and there confound their language, that they may not understand one another's speech. 8 So the Lord scattered them abroad from thence upon the face of all the earth: and they left off to build the city. 9 Therefore is the name of it called Babel; because the Lord did there confound the language of all the earth: and from thence did the Lord scatter them abroad upon the face of all the earth. (Gen 11:5-9)

If a man or woman stands up in a church and begins to speak in a babble that no one can understand, does that edify the church? or does it please God and contradict His clear Word? 33 For God is not the author of confusion, but of peace, as in all churches of the saints. (1 Cor 14:33) How can one say Amen to some ridiculous babbling that neither he, nor the speaker, understands? Did Jesus ever speak in tongues?

The languages were confounded at Babel as a result of sin, and I believe much of that babbling in churches of today are a response to sinful pride.

The Holy Ghost will not come to you with an uncertain sound. Paul describes this practice in 1 Cor 14:8-9 For if the trumpet give an uncertain sound, who shall prepare himself to the battle? So likewise ye, except ye utter by the tongue words easy to be understood, how shall it be known what is spoken? for ye shall speak into the air.

Does God intend confusion to be a reverent manner of worship? Again Paul says: For God is not the author of confusion, but of peace, as in all churches of the saints. (1 Cor 14:33)

So just as man has corrupted the meaning of the Passover of the Lord (Christ has become our Passover), and the meaning underlying Christmas, so has he undermined the meaning of Pentecost and those tongues that were spoken there. I am amazed at the great stretches of imagination men use in contorting the meaning of those tongues spoken at Pentecost to mean just the opposite of what God has clearly stated in Acts 2. In its simplest definition (and God is simple in His dealings with us) the word tongues means 'languages' – perhaps unknown by the listener, but known by whoever's language group to which it belongs.

The Holy Ghost is an agent of peace, goodwill, love, and obedience. If you hear His Voice, you will not hear the voices of false friends calling you to dress in sexy or inappropriate ways. You will disregard the voices pleading you to go where you should not, or do things you should not do. And He will speak so clearly that there can be no doubt of His meaning. Do you truly love God? Then obey His Holy Spirit in your daily lives!

Sermon – Reverend Hap Arnold - Time and Action

Church of the Faithful Centurion - Descanso, California

Today's sermon brought the Collect, Epistle and Gospel together and is partly contained in the forewords above.

Once again the propers for this week come together very well, their focus is narrow, thus powerful.

Consider these words from the Collect:

... sending to them the light of thy Holy Spirit; Grant us by the same Spirit to have a right judgment in all things, and evermore to rejoice in his holy comfort ...

When Jesus left on Ascension Day, we lost a teacher here on earth. We still have Him as Redeemer and Savior; but what to do for understanding? In response to His departure, God sent us the Holy Ghost.

Who is this Holy Ghost and why is he here?

We worship the One True God, a triune God, that is Three in One; Father, Son and Holy Ghost. Most people have no trouble understanding the concept of God the Father, Christians seem to get God the Son, but many seem to have a difficulty with the Holy Ghost, that Third God Guy.

The Holy Ghost has been there since the beginning. He breathed life into the world, yet His actions seemed to be sporadic until Pentecost.

Well, today is Pentecost, the time one normally thinks of the Holy Ghost, the Holy Spirit, the Breath of God, the Comforter. When people do think of Him, they oft think of the actions described in the words of Saint Luke in the Acts of the Apostles. The dancing and speaking in tongues. All that happened so we might understand that with the help of the Holy Ghost we might bring the Word to all mankind. The Word of God is a universal language. When the disciples spoke in tongues, the people around them heard the Word in their own language, not an odd combination of sounds that no one understood. The disciples spoke and were heard by those around them in their own language, not Klingon. It is not for us to speak in tongues without study; that was a one shot deal. It was designed to show us we could and should with hard work and persistence bring the Gospel to the world in the language of the people. It showed we were in fact to preach the Gospel to all nations, not just the nation of Israel, but to all the nations of the World. The many nations of the fallen race of Adam comprise those to whom the Good News is to be spread. Which is why God sent the Holy Ghost; so we would understand it is for us to bring the light of Christ into the world for all to see and believe upon. He is here so we can understand and then act upon His Word. He is here to provide us with the guidance and understanding necessary to preach and spread the Word into the far regions of the Earth. The Holy Ghost allows us to spread His Word amongst all the people in the world to give them the knowledge that they might open their heart to the Holy Ghost and believe. He opens our eyes to what is good for us and what is not good for us, so that we know what to believe and what not to believe.

We need the Holy Ghost if we are to follow the Great Commission Christ set forth. He knew we would need the Holy Ghost if we were to have any success in this endeavor. However, He also knew that He needed to leave if the Holy Ghost were to come and stay, so the Holy Ghost's coming had to wait until after the Ascension. He had it planned out so the disciples would not be without a direct connection to Him for very long.

The Holy Ghost also helps us to give the "righteous judgment" the Collect speaks of. This judgment is not the same as the final judgment that God judges us on our performance, but it is a judgment based on Scriptural values that with the Holy Ghost's help, we can make on our lives and others lives, based on how we see it through the lens of the Holy Ghost and Scripture. It is not to insult people but to be truthful from the standpoint of Scriptures and be able to say that certain behaviors do not line up with Scripture, i.e. homosexuality and abortion. To say those behaviors are not Christian is a righteous judgment statement the Holy Ghost helps us determine.

The Holy Ghost is also our direct connection to God. When Jesus left, the disciples were distant from God. When they were not near Jesus, they did not do as well as when they were with Him. As with the righteous judgement, the Holy Ghost helps us to align our actions and views with that of Scripture. The Holy Ghost helps us to properly understand and apply Scriptural principles in our own lives. Note Peter's actions after the arrest of Jesus for an example, thrice denying His Lord. The Holy Ghost came so we would have understanding and a direct connection to God, wireless as it were, instead of having to be tethered to Christ. This is how He can always be with us, even though He is not physically with us at the present time. We will never have to fear anything as long as He is with us, for if He is with us, who should we be afraid of, if we are on His side?

If we allow the Holy Ghost into our hearts, we will never be far from Him, and He will never be far from us. We have to consciously let Him into our hearts, He will not come uninvited into our hearts. The Holy Ghost helps us understand Scripture and gives us guidance on our earthly lives, as we work towards staying on the straight and narrow path towards heaven He will be a constant guiding presence in our lives, that will give us peace in times of trouble, and will help us guide and focus our minds in our worship of God. He will give us inspiration and help us to do what is right for our fellow Christians and friends, while staying true to God. He will light our paths in difficult times and trials and will give us the guidance we need to finish our race for God.

In today's Gospel, Jesus tells us that He would be leaving, but the Father would send a facilitator; one whose presence, if we let Him into our hearts, would let us understand His Word with those self-same hearts. The Comforter would bring the Love of God into our hearts to let us feel His Love. He will help us understand that we are striving to be one with God, with Jesus and with the Holy Ghost. Our love can be demonstrated by our actions. Jesus points out those who do not truly love Him will not keep His Commandments. However, if we truly do love him, He points out we will act for Him and by doing so will keep his commandments. Which are only possible if we allow the Holy Ghost into our hearts and believe and ACT upon our faith! This is a point that is made time and time again in Scriptures. We need to be doers of the world, not just hearers, to paraphrase St. James. For if we love Jesus, we will do as He asked.

If you think about it, you will recall the second half of the Book of Luke is titled The Acts of the Apostles. It is not the thoughts, the beliefs, the feelings, the meditations, the inner feelings or any other touchy feely thing, it is the ACTS. If you believe, act on those beliefs. The Holy Ghost is here to help us know how to act, we will just have to let Him into our hearts, and then ACT.

We need the help of the Holy Ghost to learn what we are to do, how we are to do it and most of all to do it. Action, not just diction.

Pray for His continual presence in your heart.

Heaven is at the end of an uphill trail. The easy downhill trail does not lead to the summit.

The time is now, not tomorrow. The time has come, indeed. How will you ACT?

It is by our actions we are known.

The Comforter

Pentecost, commonly called Whitsunday.

The Collect.

O GOD, who as at this time didst teach the hearts of thy faithful people, by sending to them the light of thy Holy Spirit; Grant us by the same Spirit to have a right judgment in all things, and evermore to rejoice in his holy comfort; through the merits of Christ Jesus our Saviour, who liveth and reigneth with thee, in the unity of the same Spirit, one God, world without end. Amen.

¶ This Collect is to be said daily throughout Whitsun Week.

AND it shall come to pass afterward, that I will pour out my spirit upon all flesh; and your sons and your daughters shall prophesy, your old men shall dream dreams, your young men shall see visions: 29 And also upon the servants and upon the handmaids in those days will I pour out my spirit. 30 And I will shew wonders in the heavens and in the earth, blood, and fire, and pillars of smoke. 31 The sun shall be turned into darkness, and the moon into blood, before the great and terrible day of the Lord come. 32 And it shall come to pass, that whosoever shall call on the name of the Lord shall be delivered: for in mount Zion and in Jerusalem shall be deliverance, as the Lord hath said, and in the remnant whom the Lord shall call. (Joel 2:28-32)

The brief passage from the minor prophet Joel is one of the most direct foreshadowing accounts to the Day of Pentecost. The first two verses speak to the universal outpouring of the Holy Spirit, '...I will pour out my spirit upon all flesh...' This is different from the multiply encounters with the Holy Spirit in the Old Testament. In that testimony we read where individual or a times small groups were indwelt by the Holy Spirit. Aaron, Moses, Miriam, the prophets who walked with Elijah, etc.

But on the whole, generally there was not a universal infusing or outpouring the Spirit on a general population. That is until we come to the account described in the book of Acts. The most compelling part of this scripture; this outpouring of the Holy Spirit will no longer be ethnic in nature. It would and will be universal

Here we have the faithful as they wait in Jerusalem, as instructed by the ascended Christ, suddenly 'baptized' by the Holy Spirit. This event, now known as the Day of Pentecost was unprecedented as revealed by the remarks made by those who observed the event. Many who were baptized by the Holy Spirit that day were converts to Judaism, Gentile, not Jews by birth.

There were others who observed what was happening, who had not experienced the indwelling of the Holy Spirit, who would accuse the believer of being drunk. Peter denies that accusation by indicating the early hour of the day, ...it is the 3rd hour... (9:00 am)

Another interesting fact, the outpouring was not gender specific. Men and women, sons and daughters, old and young...they all ...in those days... will have the Spirit poured out upon them.

Verses 30 & 31 seem to be out of chronological order. These two verses can be interpreted as to being about Christ recent crucifixion. There were a number of heavenly signs observed, there was an earthquake noted on the day of Christ death. The sky was dark for three hours. The blood and water refer to His piercing after His death, where blood and water flowed from his side; which indicated that he was dead, not having fainted or 'swooned' away as some have tried to explain away his resurrection. There was an eclipse that Friday, it was a "blood" moon, orange/red in color as observed, the eclipse happening as the moon rose which caused the moon light to be filtered through the thicker part of the atmosphere. This is what caused the blood colored hue to the moon.

Then in Verse 32 there is expressed the plan of salvation is explained. '...whosoever calls on the name of the Lord shall be delivered. And to finish off the thought... ...and in the remnant whom the Lord shall call..'

Let us now look at the passage of scripture from the letter to the Romans.

THERE is therefore now no condemnation to them which are in Christ Jesus, who walk not after the flesh, but after the Spirit. ² For the law of the Spirit of life in Christ Jesus hath made me free from the law of sin and death. ³ For what the law could not do, in that it was weak through the flesh, God sending his own Son in the likeness of sinful flesh, and for sin, condemned sin in the flesh: ⁴ That the righteousness of the law might be fulfilled in us, who walk not after the flesh, but after the Spirit. ⁵ For they that are after the flesh do mind the things of the flesh; but they that are after the Spirit the things of the Spirit. ⁶ For to be carnally minded is death; but to be spiritually minded is life and peace. ⁷ Because the carnal mind is enmity against God: for it is not subject to the law of God, neither indeed can be. ⁸ So then they that are in the flesh cannot please God. ⁹ But ye are not in the flesh, but in the Spirit, if so be that the Spirit of God dwell in you. Now if any man have not the Spirit of Christ, he is none of his. ¹⁰ And if Christ be in you, the body is dead because of sin; but the Spirit is life because of righteousness. ¹¹ But if the Spirit of him that raised up Jesus from the dead dwell in you, he that raised up Christ from the dead shall also quicken your mortal bodies by his Spirit that dwelleth in you. (Romans 8:1-11)

In these eleven verses we find how to know if someone is in Christ. The very nature of the flesh will be changed if you are in Christ. The Spirit, (now poured out on all believers) is a witness to our sinful nature in the law and will show righteousness of the law being fulfilled in us...how?, by not walking after the flesh, but by walking after the Spirit. We are to be spiritually minded, it is life and peace.

Being carnal minded puts us against God, by being in the flesh, that is carnally minded we cannot please God. But if you are not carnally minded, because you are in the Spirit, your body should be dead because of sin. But the Spirit is life, the very same Spirit of him that raised up Jesus from the dead, he will quicken you by his Spirit...that dwells in you.

Paul, in writing this 'list' of what to look for in believers and non-believers, gives us a way to examine our spiritual lives in light of the Gospel message. This was after the fact of Pentecost, so the Holy Spirit is now upon all believers, not just the believing Jews. Peter will be the first to record this when he witnesses Cornelius and other gentiles receiving the Holy Spirit.

Paul reaffirms this concept in this passage from Eighth Chapter of Romans. Here Paul is writing to Roman, Greek, and other gentile believers, instructing them in the understanding of what has happened, first in Jerusalem and then the rest of the known world.

By this accounting modern day believers can find comfort in the words of Paul as he expresses the real difference between the Old and New Testament. If you spend time reading and rereading these first eleven verses of chapter 8 of Romans you can find comfort in the finished work of the Lord. Jesus died once and for all on the Cross, to raise us from our dead selves to new life. He causes us by the Holy Spirit to seek him, we should desire the Word, we should read the Word, we should live the Word ; Daily.

Let us pray:

O GOD, who as at this time didst teach the hearts of thy faithful people, by sending to them the light of thy Holy Spirit; Grant us by the same Spirit to have a right judgment in all things, and evermore to rejoice in his holy comfort; through the merits of Christ Jesus our Saviour, who liveth and reigneth with thee, in the unity of the same Spirit, one God, world without end. Amen

O LORD Jesus Christ, who saidst unto thine Apostles, Peace I leave with you , my peace I give unto you; Regard not our sins, but the faith of thy Church; and grant to it that peace and unity which is according to thy will, who livest and reignest with the Father and the Holy Ghost, one God, world without end. Amen

THE grace of our Lord Jesus Christ, and the love of God, and the fellowship of the Holy Ghost, be with us all evermore. Amen.

Rev Bryan Dabney of Saint John's Sunday Sermon

We are fortunate to have Bryan's Sunday Sermon. If you want people to come to The Truth, you have to speak the truth, espouse the truth and live the truth. This is really a good piece and I commend it to your careful reading.

Pentecost, commonly called Whitsunday

In the apostle Paul's first epistle to the Corinthians, we read, But the natural man receiveth not the things of the Spirit of God: for they are foolishness unto him: neither can he know them, because they are spiritually discerned. (2:14) The natural man is thus an apt description for a secular or worldly person. One bible commentator referred to them as "worldlings" on account of their great love for the things of this life. And another once said that, "The natural man may be learned, gentle, eloquent, [and] fascinating, but the spiritual content of Scripture is absolutely hidden from him..."

When things are hidden from us by government— such as the records of proceedings regarding matters of state— or by individuals— particularly those with whom we might be in conflict due to their malicious or negligent behavior— then we are being kept, as it were, in the dark which may work to their advantage and, by extension, to our disadvantage. Such sequestrations of information might prevent us from knowing the full extent to which they have harmed or deceived us. Sometimes, these withholdings are said to be for the benefit of justice, that is, under our legal system evidence presented in court is confined to the issue at hand and may not include those things that have been deemed immaterial to the case under consideration. Other times, the inner workings of government— in its particular plans and programs— are concealed from the general public so that the politicians can protect themselves and continue in their offices, or perchance, advance to a higher office to which they may aspire because the general public was unaware of the gravity of their schemes. I have heard it said that "knowledge is power" and he who has knowledge, has power over those who do not. That maxim finds itself clearly expressed within the system of "sharecropping" which developed in the years following "the Late Unpleasantness."

Sharecropping, or the crop-lien system, came about because the Southern planters and landowners, following their failed war for independence, had no money and no means to pay their property taxes to the reconstruction governments set up by the Radical Republicans. So, these landowners would permit both blacks and whites to lease their land and farm it with the proviso that they give them a portion of the crop produced on said land. Some sharecropping was done in an open and honest manner. Unfortunately, in many cases, it was done using subterfuge and deceit. A fair number of farmers both white and black were illiterate and were taken advantage of by those who owned the store that supplied their furnishings as well as the scale on which their produce was weighed. Illiterate people are by definition unlearned, unknowing, or ignorant of the true state of their situation. Only through education were those farmers able to break out of that new form of bondage.

The same is true for the natural man in relation to God. He cannot know the things of God because he does not have the Holy Ghost. And this is because his master the devil does his level best to keep the natural man or "worldling" from the truth of God so that he cannot know him and receive from him his Spirit. The French mathematician and philosopher Blaise Pascal once noted that, "In faith there is enough light for those who want to believe and enough shadows to blind those who don't." And for the "worldling" these shadows are very dark indeed.

Desire is a product of knowledge. If you do not know of a thing, you cannot desire it. For the natural man to desire God, he must first recognize that there is God. The atheist says that there is no God. The agnostic says that he or she has no knowledge of God. The pagan says that a god or gods exist but such a being's ways are esoteric, or mysterious, and cannot be known except through some elaborate ritual or study path. And so for "worldlings" to come to know the one true and living God, they must have some indication that God does in fact exist.

The Bible tells us in Hebrews 11:1-2 that, Now faith is the substance of things hoped for, the evidence of things not seen. For by it the elders obtained a good report. We who have been regenerated in Christ have faith that God is. We also have the benefit of the Holy Ghost the Comforter to guide us. When we came to recognize the existence of God, we were then presented with who God is. If we had chosen to reject him, it would have been on account of our worldly natures influenced by Satan as he would likely have substituted some other explanation for us to believe, or, have faith in as truth. The apostle Paul noted in Romans 1:18- 20 that, ... the wrath of God is revealed from heaven against all ungodliness and unrighteousness of men, who hold the truth in unrighteousness. Because that which may be known of God is manifest in them: for God hath shewed it unto them. For the invisible things of him from the creation of the world are clearly seen, being understood by the things that are made, even his eternal power and Godhead; so that they are without excuse.

Without excuse? Yes, my friends they are without excuse because no one on this earth is truly ignorant of God. They may not know his name or the fundamentals of the Christian faith, but they know he is there if they but look about them.

The problem is that the natural man will look at the creation and will see not the handiwork of God plain before his face. But such a person will see something else. And that "something else"— whatever it may be— will not point to God. Satan desires worship, and will use every opportunity to turn the gaze of mankind from his Creator to himself. Human wisdom rationalizes rather than accurately describes this earthly sphere. We can assume broadly or specifically, but we cannot discern the things of God when we use earthly wisdom as our guide. In the story series known as "The Shadow" one of the characters said, "The clouded mind sees nothing" and Satan has done just that. For once a person rejects the truth of God, then the open door to Satan worship will have been created for as the apostle Paul noted in Romans 1:21-23, Because that, when they knew God, they glorified him not as God, neither were thankful: but became vain in their imaginations, and their foolish heart was darkened. Professing themselves to be wise, they became fools. And changed the glory of the uncorruptible God into an image made like to corruptible man, and to birds, and fourfooted beasts, and creeping things.

GK Chesterton, once said that, "When a man ceases to believe in God, he does not believe in nothing. He believes in anything." When the natural man rejects God, he will find some other source of perceived truth to believe in. That is the work of Satan who takes the seed of the word from the hearts of men so that they will then turn to him (Matthew 13:19). The darkened heart then cannot see through the veil which has descended over his soul. He cannot of his own efforts find the truth of God because he believes he has found it in the satanic rationale— the author of which is also hidden from his understanding— so that anything other than those things which point to the truth of God will be accepted and believed.

So, what then can the natural man do to be saved? He is powerless to save himself, and if he will not believe and accept Jesus Christ, he will be lost forever in the fires of perdition. Only through an acceptance of Jesus Christ as his Saviour and Lord can the natural man obtain God's gracious favor. That is where our work as Christians comes into play. God did not put us here to hobble his message of salvation by being "tolerant" or "inclusive" with regard to false doctrines or false teachers. God has called us to proclaim the truth of his word written. He has called us to have an answer for the faith that we possess. He has sent us forth as his ambassadors to this sin-darkened world that—through the shining light of our faith— others will see and then seek after God and his Christ to their eternal good.

Do not be deceived. You cannot expect to be received into God's kingdom if you are not willing to recognize him as your Creator, Redeemer and Friend. There is a day coming when God will finally bring an end to this time of sin and spiritual darkness. May it please our good and loving God to inspire you to go forth in his name and proclaim his word to those who sit in darkness and the shadow of death that they too might come into light of his presence and be saved.

Let us pray,

O GRACIOUS Father, we thank you for your word written; that through thy might and power vested in us by the Holy Ghost, we might proclaim it unto all who would hear and receive it into their hearts; for this we ask in the name of our Lord and Saviour Jesus Christ. Amen.

Have a blessed week, Bryan+

People in our Prayers - <http://faithfulcenturionprayerteam.blogspot.com/>

Why? Prayer is an extremely important activity.

It is not that God knows not our needs, for He surely does. Yet, Jesus commanded us to ask God for those same needs. In addition to the obvious of asking God for help, offering thanksgiving and the like, prayer helps us focus our thoughts on how we might do God's work.

The Prayer Team of the Anglican Orthodox Church was established to help our members and fellow Christians pray for those in need and to give thanks as well for the blessings we have been granted.

Who can be on the list? Do I have to be a member of the Anglican Orthodox Church to be prayed for?

No! The only qualification to be on the list is that you want our prayer team to pray for you. We are Christians and are happy to pray for you, no matter who you are. If you want help from God, you are our kind of people.

What is the commitment from the prayer team?

Each member of the team will pray for the desired outcome at least once per day.

How do I get myself or someone else on the prayer list?

You can email one of the prayer team leaders: Jack - jack@faithfulcenturion.org or Dru - dru@faithfulcenturion.org, or call the office at (619) 659-3608 or fill out a prayer card at your church.

What should I ask for?

Depends on what you want. Some people merely want God to be asked to heal their ills and be mentioned by their first name, others want a specific outcome and / or have more of their personal information known to the team. Ask for what you want. It is your desire and need for prayer the team is attempting to meet. For typical examples, see the list below.

Updating the Team

If you are on our prayer list, or if you have submitted a person that you have asked us to pray for, please update one of the team members or Hap in person, by telephone or email. It helps to be able to pray specifically for these individuals including their specific needs; plus if they get better, it is our happy duty to give thanks!

Please note that on the yellow (maybe green or orange if you get an old one) cards at church, you can ask that those to be prayed for have their names disseminated to the prayer team. Those names will be said in church and appear here. Or, you can ask that their names and purpose be kept confidential, then only Hap will know to pray for them.

Prayer List Notice – If you have someone on the prayer list and their needs have changed, please let us know. We'd like to update our prayers to reflect the need and most important to give thanks!

Please pray for the Lord's will regarding the establishment of an AOC church in Indonesia.

Pakistan

General and Ongoing - The forces of evil are strong in Pakistan. The force of God stronger. Pray for our Christian family there.

Ernest Jacob
Presiding Bishop Pakistan

Congo

Jimmy is a missionary in the Congo. There has been violent unrest in this country and also a water shortage. Please pray people will find water to drink and Jimmy will be a means of helping others to find the Lord.

Philippines

Please pray a Minister will be found who would like to serve in Tabuk, in the Philippine Islands. The Anglican Orthodox Church has an established Church there and in the surrounding areas and need a Shepherd to lead the flock.

Diocese of the Epiphany

Saint Paul's Moberly, Missouri would like your prayers that the Holy Ghost might enter more fully into their hearts so that they might be more effective in spreading the Word of God.

Saint Joseph of Arimathea Anglican Orthodox Church is under a lot of stress. We all are, but they need even more prayer. Rev Roger Jessup, their wonderful minister, had to retire as he was so pressed by the duties of a primary care giver, in addition to all the worries of this world. Pray for trust in God for each member of the parish and for them to find economic relief.

Armed Forces & Contractors

Dustin (USAF - Stateside), Kristyna and Luis Aviles (Army - Fort Lewis, Washington), Airman Donny Patton (USAF - Hulbert Field, Florida), Jordan Brown (USMC – Recruiter - Iowa City, Iowa), Trevor Jennings (USAF - KC-10 Boom Operator – McGuire AFB, NJ), Trevor Di Marco (USN - Whidbey Island, EF-18 Pilot), Kurt Thomas (USN – Virginia), Ethan (US Army Airborne – Southwest Asia)

For Our Country

Our country has lost its way. Over half the people that vote, voted for a government that promises them things it cannot deliver in return for their souls which it can, will and does take. Our foreign policy backs the rise of Islam, we turn our backs on those who would follow God and arm those who murder them. Pray God will raise up a leader from among the people who can turn the country's course 180° and attempt to come back to God. Pray the people will recognize that they are headed down a smooth wide road into the pit, a road that will get smoother and smoother, steeper and steeper until the only possible way is down. Down, into the depths of the pit. Pray people will recognize there is:

- One True and Triune God who is goodness in and of Himself;
- All religions are not equal;
- All ways of life are not equal;
- The Bible holds the Key to Life;
- All rights come from God, not the State;
- Good;
- Bad;
- Evil;
- Right;
- Wrong;
- Allah is the Devil;
- Abortion is no more than sacrifice of children to Baal.

Pray this recognition will not come too late. Pray we will, each of us, do our duty to God, Country and Family, putting His Honor above all.

Persecuted

Around the world, Christians are under attack, not only in the Muslim world, but from Hindus and others in India. Also, they are under continual attack in the name of Separation of Church and State in the western world, as it becomes actively atheist or pro-devil buddy. Please pray for God's guidance and protection for all persecuted Christians and those around them.

Education

Aaron is in need of God's guidance to see what he needs to do to fulfill his potential and live his life in a manner which will bring true happiness to him.

Thomas Dabney is attending Delta State University in Cleveland, Mississippi, to finish his Bachelor's Degree. Please pray for Thomas to focus on education and do his very best at school.

Jim and Mary Lou's grandson Pearce, who is entered college 22 August 2107.

A good, happy and productive year for our Jim and Mary Lou's grandson Colin who is completing his Junior Year in High School.

Jim and Mary Lou's granddaughter Lucy, who is in second grade for gifted children. Pray it will be the challenge she needs and she will also mature socially.

Thanksgiving

Tricia and Whitney give thanks for safe and productive travel to the British Virgin Islands for work.
